

Job Description

Approved on 9/6/2018

Job Title: Registered Nurse

Supervisor: Director of Emergency Services

FLSA Status: Non-Exempt

Qualifications: Graduate of an accredited School of Nursing, Registered Nurse required; Bachelor of Science in Nursing preferred. Current Basic Life Support Certification. Minimum of 1 year RN experience.

Positional Summary: The Registered Nurse (RN) is responsible for managing individualized patient care by promoting and restoring patients' health through the nursing process. The RN will also collaborate with physicians and multidisciplinary team members to provide physical and psychological support to patients, friends, and families.

Job Descriptions/Essential Functions

- Perform COVID testing and patient education related to COVID per CDC recommendations
- Provides skilled, evidence-based nursing care under the direction of a physician and/or mid-level
- Nurses will be trained to float between nursing departments to meet patient needs
- Assists in the assessment, planning, implementation, and evaluation of patient needs
- Perform and assist in other clinical and business functions of the clinic/hospital
- Administer prescribed medications and treatments in accordance with nursing standards
- Obtain and document allergies, medications, procedures, immunizations, past medical history, family history, social history, chief complaint, and vital signs
- Post tests and exam results in patient's chart
- Documents patient care observations and activities according to professional standards and procedures
- Demonstrates effective communication skills (verbal, written, and computerized) with the health care team through documenting, reporting & interacting

- Aids in identifying methods of improving patient care
- Demonstrates professionalism by articulating and demonstrating professional behavior, accepting responsibility/accountability for actions, adhering to departmental/ hospital policies and procedures, and applying and maintaining nursing practice
- Maintains a clean, well-stocked patient care area, observing asepsis techniques and all other federal mandates, i.e., OSHA, CLIA, etc.
- Maintains continuing education units, seeks out and pursues educational opportunities
- Maintains confidentiality regarding patient and business functions of the facility
- Follow time, attendance policies, and procedures
- Uses universal precautions when tasks being performed present the possibility of exposure to blood or body fluids; this includes using appropriate personal protective equipment and work policies
- Participates in and fosters an approach to continuously improving quality that includes both intra-departmental and inter-departmental activities
- Has knowledge of the clinical interventions and equipment necessary to meet the specific needs of the patient population served
- Ability to make decisions and initiate action under stressful or critical situations
- Ability to effectively interact with physicians, mid-levels, other healthcare providers, staff, and patients
- Working knowledge of computerized medical records and other computerized applications and systems
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment; proficient with multi-tasking
- Customer service-oriented attitude and behavior with a pleasant, poised demeanor.
- Embraces and participates in a teamwork-oriented environment
- Follows all Harrison County Community Hospital District and departmental policies and procedures
- All other duties as assigned